MARLOW MAN IS CLAIMED SLAYER OF HOTEL OWNER

Proprietor Slain and Negro is Fatally Wounded by Band of Men.

YOUTH NOW SOUGHT

Row Over Negro Who Refused to Adhere to Custom of City.

(By the Associated Press)
MARLOW, Okla., Dec. 18.—Search for Marvin Kincannon, 20-year-old son of a well known family here, and a party of young men who are alleged to have left the city last night in a motor car, was started today by Stephens county authorities as the aftermath of the killing last night of A. L. Berch, proprietor of a hotel, and the fatal wounding of Robert Journagan, a negro porter.

Paul Sullivan, county attorney, declared that Kincannon was wanted for questioning in connection with the shooting which occurred when a party of about 15 men went to Berch's hotel and threatened to lynch the porter whose presence in Marlow defied a rule of years standing which forbids negroes to be in the city after sundown.

Negro Shot Down.
Berch and the negro came into the lobby to argue with the mob but a volley of shots cut off the conference before a word had been uttered. Berch fell dead with a bullet in his heart and the negro dropped unconscious. He died today.

Mrs. Berch, who witnessed the shooting, declared she could identify some members of the mob all of whom were unmasked.

Investigation today revealed the fact that a mob of smaller proportions attempted to drive Journagan from the city last Friday night but was vanquished by the negro's razor. Details of the reported attack are meager and the authorities did not learn of it until after Journagan's death.

REMARKABLE CHANGE IN LODGE PERSONNEL NOTED

A member of the News staff who attended the Masonic lodge meeting Monday evening was struck with the change in the personnel of the lodge during the past few years. Only two out of a hundred were present who were there when the News man first visited the lodge 17 years ago. Of course there are a number who were members then who are still affiliated here now, but many have passed away and others have moved away while the work has been passed to other hands. A great number of young men have become members within the past few years and these are carrying on in able manner.

A glance at the minutes of the Grand Lodge of the Indian Territory for 1898 shows that at that time the Ada lodge had only 16 members. Of these J. R. Young is the only one still affiliated with the lodge, the others having either died or moved to other places.

Greece Striking for Republican Regime; King Asked to Leave

(By the Associated Press)
ATHENS, Greece, Dec. 18.—King George and Queen Elizabeth will leave Athens tonight for Rumania, it is announced by newspapers here today.

ATHENS, Dec. 18.—The government last night informed King George in writing that it considered it desirable for him to leave Greece until the national assembly had decided on the regime best befitting the country. The king reserved his reply until today.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—An agency dispatch from Athens says that King George and the queen are leaving for Rumania tonight without signing any decrees and that Admiral Koundouritis will be appointed regent.

Another telegram reports that a delegation representing the army and navy last evening informed Col. Bastaris that the officers of both services regarded the removal of the dynasty as a national necessity.

Fox Not to Take Stand in Behalf of His Defense

(By the Associated Press)
ATLANTA, Dec. 18.—Philip E. Fox, former Ku Klux Klan editor, will not take the stand to testify in his own behalf during his trial here on a charge of murdering W. S. Coburn, a Klan attorney, it was announced today by a party closely associated with the defense. Fox has entered an insanity plea and alienists have testified that he is now in a chronic paranoid condition.

"Fox is able to converse intelligently on many subjects," the informant declared, "but defense counsel after lengthy deliberation has decided it would not be wise to have him make a statement in his own behalf."

BODIES BURIED IN FIRE DAMAGE

Three Bodies Recovered from Ruins of Burned Hotel in Houston.

(By the Associated Press)
HOUSTON, Tex., Dec. 18.—Three bodies have been recovered from the wrecked Capitol hotel in the center of the business district which was destroyed by fire at 6:30 o'clock this morning and firemen expressed the fear that many more bodies would be found before the search of the building was concluded. The identity of the victims, all men, whose bodies have been recovered has not been established.

Firemen are continuing their search through the ruins. A check of the guests of the hotel cannot be obtained and officers said the only way they could determine the number of casualties was to make a complete search of the ruined structure.

Property damage is estimated at $300,000. The flames which for a time threatened the entire district were brought under control shortly before 8 o'clock. The fire originated in the hotel building and spread rapidly to the adjoining buildings. A falling wall crashed to the roof of the adjoining building occupied by the W. C. Munn Co.'s department store. The fire was checked only after all stores on that side of the block had been badly damaged by water.

The new officers were installed at once and assumed their duties.

SPIRITUAL GUIDANCE IS BALM TO WIS. MAN

(By the Associated Press)
SUPERIOR, Wis., Dec. 18.—The "peace that passeth all understanding" came last night to Edward J. Sallstad in the Douglas county jail where he is awaiting trial on a charge of arson and he went to bed untroubled and cheerful.

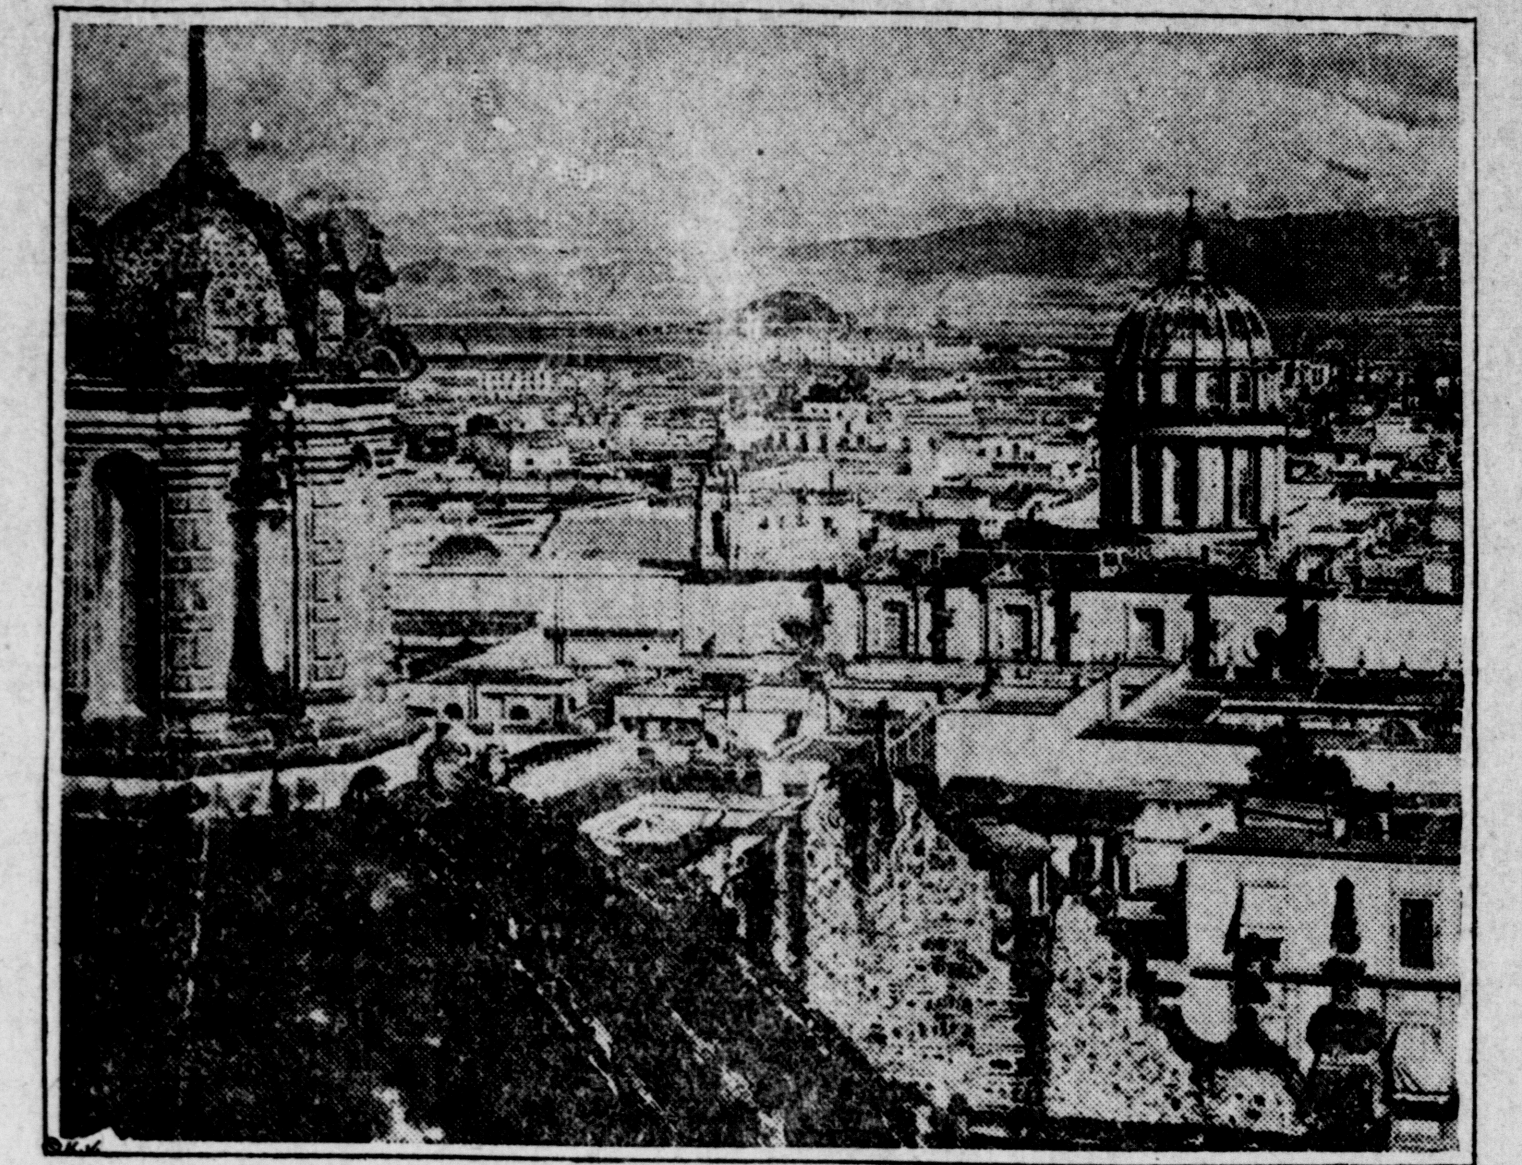

Sallstad and his "sunshine girl," Dorothy Anderson, his former secretary when he was the head of a phonograph manufacturing company at Eau Claire, Wisconsin, yesterday asked for and received spiritual guidance from the pastor of the church Sallstad attended here as a boy, the minister remaining with the couple in the sheriff's office for more than an hour.

Mrs. Augusta Sallstad, aged mother of the prisoner, brought the churchman to the jail and she gave a pleasant greeting to Dorothy Anderson and her son. News that his wife, Mrs. Leona Sallstad-Richardson, whom he deserted to elope with the Anderson girl, had returned to her home in Eau Claire brought relief to Sallstad.

GOOD REPRESENTATION AT SECOND SHOWING OF PLAY

A well-represented audience expressed approval of the second showing of the Legion play "The Microbe of Love" here last night at the Convention Hall. While the attendance was not so great as on the first showing, a large number took advantage of the reduced admission price. Proceeds of the play will be placed at the disposal of legion executives.

Veteran City Of Revolutions Again Threatened By Insurgents

An unusual view of Mexico City.

Mexico City, capital of Mexico and veteran of a hundred revolutions, is watching developments in the latest revolt, started by forces of the Obregon government. The insurgents are now marching on the capital from the east. The revolt had its inception in the State of Vera Cruz and neighboring states. The rebel army is following the line of the Inter-oceanic railway and boasts of four batteries of 75-millimeter guns and four of machine guns as well as small arms.

MEXICAN REVOLT ON WANING STEP

Rebels Beaten in Conflict Near National Capital; Now Believed Regime Safe.

(By the Associated Press)
MEXICAN government forces moving eastward from the capital have come into direct contact with the rebel columns from Vera Cruz and a fight for possession of Apizaco, 70 miles east of Mexico City is reported.

The battle went on all day yesterday, according to dispatches received from Vera Cruz where the rebels maintain their headquarters, but no indication of the outcome has been received. Rebel reinforcements are being hurried to the scene from the coast.

Related advices from Mexico City say the rebels evacuated Puebla City, southeast of the capital last night. While not admitting the truth of this the rebels from their Vera Cruz headquarters announced a "change in plan" whereby their forces from Puebla "advanced upon Apizaco" for the purpose of consolidating railroad communications.

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 17.—The revolutionary evacuated Puebla tonight, the war department announces. Federal forces occupied Ahuazac and Lucas Gonzales.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The revolutionary movement in Mexico will not change the policy of the American government towards Mexico, it was announced today at the White House.

OIL NEWS

That the territory around Ada and throughout Pontotoc county is to receive more attention than ever before seems now to be accepted by oil men everywhere. The following item came out this morning in the Okmulgee Times:

Ada Country Booming.
The play right now is in that part of the country south of We-woka, nearly as far south as Ada. This activity is due largely to the bringing in of the Tom Slick gas well in 25-6-6. An Okmulgee man said yesterday that he sold a 40 acre lease a mile and a half from the Slick well for $40 an acre. A number of local lease speculators are making a clean up in this part of the country, having bought considerable acreage two years ago at from $1 to $2 an acre.

Law Guardians Idle
City and county officers reported a laxity of business today with no arrests recorded in either of the departments. Regardless of the present laxity, officers are preparing a strict enforcement program to be carried out to Christmas holiday revellers.

Helen Proud Of Four Cubs For Her Lair

Helen, Honess of the Honest Bill Shows, has been purring over four lusty cubs since Sunday night when the new additions to Honest Bill Newton's circus management made their debut in the circus world.

The valuable kittens will receive the most delicate care of the trainer until they are old enough to prance their cage and stand inspection to the circus goers.

Helen protects her own with added vim and lunges at the bars when a stranger is near, growling her protest against any interest in her young.

The litter, three females and a male, is a valuable addition to Newton's animal family and their value will mount into thousands of dollars if the young cubs pass through their youth safely.

True mother instinct is shown by the lioness, who has made the male of the litter her favorite and keeps him fondled under her paw.

PICHER HOTEL FIRE CLAIMS ONE VICTIM

(By the Associated Press)
MIAMI, Okla., Dec. 18.—The body of Henry Philbeck, 35, a miner, was found burned to a crisp in the charred debris of rooming house at Picher which was destroyed by fire early today. Twenty other men sleeping in the house escaped.

According to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moore, proprietors of the rooming house, they were awakened early this morning by the smell of smoke in their bed room. They waked the roomers of the house and assisted by several men carried three women from the flaming building.

"I knocked on Philbeck's door but he must have been unable to rouse himself," Moore said.

The house was burned to the ground before fire fighters arrived.

Ginning Reports in County Show Drop in Season's Cotton Yield

The report of the census bureau shows that prior to December 1 Pontotoc county had ginned 7,582 bales of cotton as compared with 11,071 on the same date a year ago.

Tillman county leads the state with 30,177 bales. Bryan county ranks third with 22,007. Bryan was also one of the very few counties to show a gain over last year. Love county shows the greatest percentage of gain practically doubling the yield of last year.

The counties showing a gain are mainly in the section badly infested with boll weevil for the two years previous while the losses occur in sections where the weevil did less damage during this period.

POSTOFFICE NOW IN YULETIDE JAM

Christmas Parcel Shippers Begin Deluge on Employees of Postoffice.

The Christmas holidays have started in full blast at the Ada postoffice this morning, employees who were laboring at an early hour behind piles of parcels were ready to admit.

Up to today, shipments of Christmas gifts through the mails have been lagging with only a few parcels bearing the ear-marks of Christmas cheer addressed to far corners of the United States and to foreign lands.

Today, the long line of Christmas shoppers were waiting for the windows to open at eight o'clock and windows and temporary booths until the final hour of the holiday period.

Practically all Christmas parcels now being received at the post office bear addresses to places outside this section of the country, northern and eastern states as well as far western cities are subject of attention from Ada shippers.

A special booth has been arranged in the lobby of the post office to handle the surplus work of the office.

Postmaster M. F. Manville is expecting a last-minute deluge of Christmas cards and other correspondence of Christmas cheer.

Hughes Refuses to Heed Soviet Pleas for Recognition

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Secretary Hughes informed Russian soviet officials today in a statement transmitted through the American consul at Reval that "there would seem to be at this time no reason for negotiations" with the soviet government such as suggested in a message from the soviet foreign minister received yesterday at the White House.

The secretary's statement said that the American government "is not proposing to barter away its principles."

GIRL CHARGED OF MURDER RELEASED BY COURT

(By the Associated Press)
RARTLESVILLE, Dec. 18.—Mabel Haase of Ramona, charged with the murder of Raymond Boone, a Ramona youth at a dance in the southeast portion of the county more than a year ago, was discharged this morning in district court by County Attorney Bailey. Insufficient evidence was the reason given for the dismissal. The case had been set for trial several times but was continued in each instance. The slaying is said to have followed an argument outside the dance hall.

NO TRACE FOUND OF CHICAGO MAN; RELATIVES HELP

Information from Friends and Subjects of Swindles Shed Little Light.

New York Woman is Swindled; Others Report Losses from "Oil Bubble."

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—While prosecutors here continued to search for clues to the whereabouts of Leo Koretz, missing promoter of the alleged Panama "oil bubble," investigations have been extended to New York, Denver, Colorado Springs and other cities where investors are believed to have added thousands of dollars to the $5,000,000 or more which Koretz is charged with speculating.

According to information which investigators say they have, Koretz received an amount in New York equal to that invested by his friends and relatives here. Mrs. Salo Auerbach, wife of a wealthy theater owner who is said to have invested $35,000 in the Bayano scheme, who was sought for three days for questioning by state's attorneys, appeared at the prosecutor's office last night and denied any knowledge of the place of refuge of the missing promoter. She declared, according to an assistant state's attorney, that her only acquaintance with Koretz had been at functions she attended with her husband.

Prosecution for receiving stolen property is planned by State's Attorney R. E. Crowe against Mrs. Etta Seyer, a sister, and Mrs. Bertha Mayer, mother of Koretz, who have refused to turn over to the prosecutor $75,000 given them by Koretz before he vanished. Mr. Crowe announced late yesterday. Other relatives have turned over $225,000 and Mrs. Koretz, wife of the missing promoter, has turned over jewelry and personal effects valued at $75,000.

Testifying before a referee in bankruptcy Mrs. Koretz was unable to tell anything of her husband's affairs other than that she was left destitute. She said she expected to teach school in order to support herself and that her 16-year-old son had been taken from school and would go to work.

EMPTY STOCKING FUND NEEDING SPONSORS NOW

Showing a lack of needed impetus to carry on the fulfillment of the annual Christmas Empty Stocking campaign, sponsors of this worthy benevolent enterprise had received only $2.50 at the present.

An appeal has been issued from the local Red Cross and Charities office and from the Y. W. C. A. girls, who have active charge of the Empty Stocking drive to the citizens of Ada to adhere to the appeal for the needy families of Ada that will receive no other Christmas cheer than the contribution of the Empty Stocking fund.

Mrs. Orville Sneed, Red Cross secretary, points to the praise-worthy assistance rendered needy families in the Empty Stocking campaign of previous years, many families receiving the necessities of life through this medium.

Mrs. Sneed stated that stockings would remain in conspicuous places until Christmas Eve and urged people to set aside the amount spent for luxuries for the assistance of unfortunate families.

Harreld Advises With President Coolidge on Naming of Judge

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Senator Harreld, Republican, Oklahoma, called at the White House for the purpose he said of advising the administration today against making any more mistakes in the matter of selecting an additional federal judge for Oklahoma. Senator Harreld has been supporting John B. Meserve and James Harris, national committeemen, has recommended another candidate. The president is understood to have declined to appoint either and to have asked Senator Harreld to recommend a new candidate. This request has been taken under consideration by the senator and in the meantime the president has asked former Representative Bird S. McGuire, who is a candidate for the appointment to confer with him.

By installing machines that will make 8,000 cigars daily, a cigar factory at Evansville, Ind., will be able to dispense with the services of 2,500 girls.

PROHIBITION IN U. S. CRITICIZED BY BRITISH BISHOP

PLYMOUTH—The Rev. Lord tines, "that Englishmen have been found to assist in breaking America, in a pastoral letter says can laws. Each country has the America has antipathized men of right to govern itself. Whether the moderate opinion, and there seems laws are good or bad, it is fundamental to be a danger that its total prohibitionally opposed to the doctrine of prohibition will in the end be far less self-government than another country's practice should allow its citizens to ential prohibition of spirits among courage a breach of those laws."

the working classes, by a heavy tax. "Still I deeply regret," he continued, "that Englishmen have been found to assist in breaking America, in a pastoral letter says can laws. Each country has the America has antipathized men of right to govern itself. Whether the moderate opinion, and there seems laws are good or bad, it is fundamental to be a danger that its total prohibitionally opposed to the doctrine of prohibition will in the end be far less self-government than another country's practice should allow its citizens to ential prohibition of spirits among courage a breach of those laws."

it make you want to be more brave, more kind, cleaner, better sport, more of a conqueror of all obstacles in your way? Robin Hood's fighting spirit was most admirable. We went out of that theatre ambitious to begin a crusade for more scouts and better scouts in Ada and in the county. Lets take Pontotoc county in a great crusade and capture all boys in this county for scouting, high ideals, righteousness and honor for country and last but best for God.

Live bunch, this troop 7. Invited! Judge Orel Busby, Pres. of Council, L. A. Ellison scout Commissioner; R. W. Simpson, pres. Court of Honor; M. Matthews, chairman of finance committee; Mess. S. M. Shaw, J. U. Criswell, and J. C. Sparks troop committee-men, all of you are invited to attend troop 7 meeting Tuesday night at city hall. Order, order; Lets have more quiet. So says Clinton Van Curen. Some patrol leader—see Carl Marsh, Owen Izzard, and Orel Clamptit. Assistant scoutmaster Morgan Carroll, and scout scout master Alletag are right on the job.

Big Fishes! Troop 10 held the first scout meeting in the scout room at the Memorial Hall. Lions Club and Ada citizens, we sure do appreciate that room. Frank Evans scoutmaster says that he held one of the very best meetings that he ever had right in that room. Good start. Troop 10 will meet there regularly from now on.

Atta boy! L. J. Gregg of troop 9 says give me them boxing gloves I want K. O. Lawrence Weaver, but L. J. forgot and shut one eye and Lawrence biffed him one. As for tying knots in the contest between the three patrols, Earl Philpot's Flying Squirrels just barely beat Hoyt Pryors patrol. Every officer of the troop was present except scribe Hasker.

9 is ambitious to have a troop of first class scouts. That isn't the way to salute that National flag, said Asst. S. P. L. Carl Houston, troop 3, to Newman Edminston. Do it this way and "Red" did it. Ah! Sam Bingham get with your patrol, spoke the patrol leader and Sam did. Scouts W. A. Lewis and Ross Burke of the Crow patrol came to headquarters and passed all their tenderfoot tests in a very acceptable manner. Best and most satisfactory tender foot passing, we have had. Marlin Baker will make the Crows a fine patrol leader. He is a sure enough scout and he and Newman Edminston will surprise the other patrols with their exhibit.

When it comes to singing troop 3 is right there. Watch Jack Dixonof troop 2. He is going to give Linn Cales the race of his life when it comes to making things with a knife and ax. A look at Jack's plans would scare Linn Cales. Mack Braly, Jack Dixon, Leo Hennigan and a few other scouts went with the executive to Hunters pasture and got some material for the scout room.

You tell'em the scout who misses any scout meeting these days is missing the real thing in scouting. Meet your scoutmaster, patrol leaders, scribes and assistant patrol leaders at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon at 1:30. Prof. M. P. Hatchett, of the college will be there. Something doing. Be on hand.

TULSA SEEKING CUT IN DEATH RATE NOW

(By the Associated Press)
TULSA, Okla., Dec. 16.—The Tulsa Chamber of Commerce and board of education are fostering a campaign here for city-wide observation of life and property. A safety-first program to be launched December 17, is designed to reduce the death toll in accidents, many of which, according to the police, are preventable.

The Chamber of Commerce, at a meeting recently, heard opinions of various railway and safety-first engineers as the first step in an effort to formulate a more drastic set of traffic rules for the city. Isaiah Hale, safety-first council member of the A. T. and S. F. railroad, advised the Chamber of Commerce on the matter of grade crossings in and near the city. He asked that the chamber take up with the city commissioners the matter of providing more adequate protection in the form of danger signals at these crossings.

Bert Hiburn, superintendent of the Tulsa street railway, explained the necessity for better traffic rules in regard to motor cars passing in front of, and to the side of street cars. As the law now stands passengers, in alighting from cars, are in danger of being struck, he said.

The board of education has asked the city to protect its school districts with danger lines for warning motorists to a slow pace that will be more easily seen than those now in use. The board in its campaign, also asks for more protection in the form of police escorts for children crossing streets upon coming to and going from schools.

"Covered Wagon" Coming
"The Covered Wagon" which opens a one day engagement at the McSwain Theatre on Monday, December 24th has proved a sensation wherever shown and crowds have flocked to the playhouse far in excess of their capacity. The most prominent people of the country have endorsed the play, the governors of the states, public officials, army and navy commanders and heads of patriotic societies. The reason of this extraordinary interest is the fact that "The Covered Wagon" vividly portrays one of the most vital periods in America's annals, namely, the conquest of the Oregon Trail in 1844-45 by the "covered wagon" or prairie schooner.

This is pictured in the form of a thrilling and romantic love story. The heroine is a girl from Abe Lincoln's country in Illinois, who drives one of the wagons. The rival suitors for her hand are two ex-service officers of the Mexican war. Almost every kind of hazardous adventure is encountered by the pioneers, who are shown battling against fire, flood, Indians, buffalo stampede, starvation, thirst, and blizzard in their heroic attainment of the new west. Any number of laughs are furnished by the antics of two old scouts, and of the banjo-playing, terbackerchawing boy, Jed Wingate.

With a fine cast headed by J. Warren Kerrigan and Lois Wilson and a magnificent orchestra accompaniment, "The Covered Wagon"

(in the words of a Boston critic) rouses like martial music. The epic is given twice daily at 2:30 and 8:30 p. m. respectively. Patrons are urged to attend the matinee if possible, since there is such a large turnout almost every night. Prices matinee 50c, $1.00. Everings 75c and $1.50. Hunters climbing fences with loaded guns are hunting accidents.

MEMBER OF GERMAN GYMNAST CLUB DIES PLAYING NEW GAME

AACHEN—A new game, which has become popular in Belgium, recently resulted disastrously for the Dienst Gymnast club. One member died and 17 others narrowly escaped the same fate.

Participants in the game are locked in a motor truck and taken for a long ride. Then they are released and the first to reach a designated place is declared the winner.

When the chauffeur was about to release the Dienst club members he found one of them dead, 15 unconscious and two bordering on that condition. Escaping gas had entered the closed car.

THIS IS THE LIFE—!

The old year is drawing to a rapid close. Christmas shopping days seem to have greased the skidway, and 1923 is slipping away from us. We feel that it perhaps might be of interest to many of our readers to have the editor's record for the year.

We have been broke 361 times.
 We have praised the public 92 times.
 Told lies for others (approximately) 13,921 times.
 Have received three free dinners.
 Missed prayer meetings 52 times.
 Been roasted 612 times.
 Accused of being a "Klucker" 70 times.
 Accused of being a relative of the Pope 68 times.
 Accused of holding "special police commission" under Walton.

Accused one time of being a skunk.
 Mistaken for a preacher 2 times, a wop 1 time, a bum 10 times, a penitentiary guard 2 times, a capitalist 8, barber 1 time, and a bootlegger 3 times.

Managed to get out an issue of the News-Capital every evening even though scandals had to be suppressed for the good of the community.

We may have overlooked a few things, but the high spots are covered. Newspaper life is the life. Welcome the New Year on.—McAlester News-Capital.

Any one will admit that the farmers should be thoroughly organized and it is plain that with such an organization well handled the farming industry would be in a position to wield great influence on the economic welfare of the country. However, the greatest mischief maker in times past has been the politician. When the farmers were getting fairly well organized these office hunters, seeing here a magnificent opportunity to ride into fat jobs over the shoulders of the farmers, have come along and insisted that political action was needed and the best way to get this was to elect these said politicians to office. Of course the politicians never have carried out their promises and generally the farmers organization has been wrecked. While the organization was flourishing the politicians displayed a great deal of sympathy for the poor farmers and shed many crocodile tears over his woes but straightway after the voters became few they forgot all about the tribulations of the farmers until another organization was launched by the men who realized the need of united action along economic lines.

Senator Bruce of Maryland quit his colleagues when the election of Senator Smith of South Carolina as chairman of the Interstate Commerce committee, one of the most important assignments in the senate, was possible through the aid of the insurgent Republicans. His plea was that he would never ride in the same boat with LaFollette. All right, Mr. Bruce, but when Mr. LaFollette offers the party a special favor there is no reason why it should not benefit by it. Our idea is to take all the insurgents offer and pat them on the back occasionally to keep them in a good humor with the Democrats so that both can put a few cockleburrs under Senator Lodge's saddle when opportunity offers.

Farmers are not the only ones to be victimized by smooth politicians. One variety of this breed is not particularly eager to hold office, but is anxious for a soft job with a good salary. In order to get this the easy money man gets out and agitates the formation of a society or league of some sort and works up the enthusiasm of the members to pay nice fat dues, most of which go to the pockets of the head men of the concern. Henceforth it is only necessary to keep the interest of their followers worked up to the point where the dues will keep up a steady flow.

Secretary Mellon points with pride to a reduction of more than $4,000,000,000 in the national debts since it began to fall instead of rise. However, he forgets to state that a little more than two and one-half billion of this cut was during the last year and a half of Wilson's administration while the reduction during the two and one-half years of Harding's administration it was a shade below two billion.

When one reads of the numerous "generals" on one side or the other of the Mexican rumper he is led to wonder if there are any members of the armies left to serve as privates. If the various generals could be placed ten paces apart and each given a gat or bowie to scrap it out considerable trouble would be saved Mexico and the rest of the world would also profit by it.

If Tom McKeown succeeds in getting a term of federal court at Ada it will add something to the prestige of the city and prove a great convenience. It will mean some court officers permanently located here and the turning loose of quite a bit of money in course of a year. It is only the more important towns of the district that are designated as federal court towns and this would fit Ada exactly.

Let a NEWS WANT AD get it for you.

SURE, WE HAVE SOMETHING IN COMMON WITH EUROPE

HIGH LIFE AMONG THE IDLE RICH

Have you ever noticed in passing the residence of a very rich man—a millionaire—that it is surrounded by high walls, or set way in from the street, or hidden by a high thick hedge? Even in the country the large homes are always hidden from view by large trees, protected by iron-spiked fences or perhaps by an uninviting barbed wire.

All these precautions are taken against the curious. And who amongst us would not be eager to just "take a look" into the homes of the idle rich. We hear so much about the luxurious furnishings, the rich tapestries and carpets and the gay parties staged in these homes, that we would just jump at a chance to witness some of these things with our own eyes.

Some of the stories sound too elaborate for the wildest imagination and we are prone to believe that they are a bit exaggerated.

But according to "The Gold Diggers," now playing at the McSwain Theatre, these things are true. Here are the true reflections of hilarious parties and wild times of the idle rich and their friends.

SHRINERS CONTINUE WITH PROGRAM OF CLOTHING KIDDES

Shriners continued their Christmas offering to needy school kiddees of Ada today and the round of shopping to secure warm clothing was still in progress.

Clothes secured at cost from Ada stores were being placed in the hands of children listed by teachers of Ada schools.

Words of praise have been reported from grateful families where the benevolent hand of the Shrine Club has been felt.

GOOD LUCK TO THE SHRINERS

Last night when I went home from work and my little boys began to show me the things that the Shriners gave them I said in my heart "God Bless the Shriners," and in return for the kindness they have shown the needy of Ada, may God's richest blessings rest upon them throughout the whole year.

YDE WONDER LAD OF DIAMOND NOW

Oklahoma City Twirler Sold to National League After Valuable Service.

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 18.—Like the fictitious hero of boyhood's literature is the professional baseball career of Emil Ogden Yde, 25, former pitching ace of Oklahoma City, champion of the Western league, now the property of the Pittsburgh Nationals.

Two years ago Yde (whose name is pronounced Edee) was an instructor in a Chicago athletic club; today he is one of the most likely pitching prospects in major league circles.

And also the illustrious youth with super athletic proclivities of grammar school days Yde's ascendancy to major league rank is due in part to a girl. The girl who happens to be his fiancée wants him to quit baseball, complete his college work and enter a profession.

This Yde intends doing but he first wants to show the girl that fame and fortune awaits the star of the diamond.

Yde's stellar work for the Indians this past summer attracted the scouts of the majors and several looked him over. Both the Cincinnati Reds and Pittsburgh bid for him, the latter securing him for a price said to be $25,000. It was not revealed.

Yde's debut in the Western league was sensational. Late in the summer of 1922 things were going bad with Oklahoma City's pitching staff. Pitcher Krueger, utility infielder, told Manager Jack Holland of a young amateur baseball player in his home town of Freeport, Illinois, who he believed could pitch the Indians out of their difficulty.

And so Yde became a professional baseball player. He had never pitched a game, always playing the outfield. At the University of Wisconsin he won his letter in the pitching box. The stocky Illinois lad won his first five games, then lost five, finishing the season with an average of .500. He batted .295.

In 1923 he established himself as one of the premier minor league twirlers. He won 28 and lost 12 games. As a pinch hitter he was one of the best in the league batting to an average of .389 in 93 games. He was second in both batting and pitching.

It was Yde's pitching and, in part, his hitting that brought Oklahoma City its first pennant in the Western. When the Indian pitching staff, weakened by the

FELT TIRED, SO TIRED

Indiana Lady Says She Was Run Down, Suffered With Her Back, Took Cardui, and Got Well.

Richmond, Ind.—"I thought I would write a line or so, to say that I owe my good health and strength to Cardui," says a letter from Mrs. Cora Courtney, 31 Railroad Street, this city.

"I was all run-down until my family thought they would lose me," writes Mrs. Courtney. "My husband coaxed me to take Cardui, so, to please him, I did, and will say I do not regret it, for I am able to do all my work and do my shopping. I have five children, four in school, my husband and a boarder to do for, and I do all my own work for all of us, and find time to play. We all praise Cardui. Every sick and run-down woman should take this wonderful medicine."

"I suffered with my back; a very weak feeling in my limbs. I felt hardly able to drag; just tired—so tired all the time. It was an effort for me to do anything, but Cardui helped me so I felt like a different woman."

If you are in a run-down physical condition, suffering as this Indiana lady says she did, give Cardui a fair trial. It should help you.

Take Cardui. NC-147

"If Winter Comes" Ends. Engagement T.-night

"If Winter Comes," which will close its run at the American Theatre tonight, has proved the hit of the local season.

Percy Marmont's characterization of Mark Sabre is one of the finest pieces of work we have ever seen on the screen, and realizes as near as it is humanly possible the great character of Hutchinson. Mark Sabre has won his way into the heart of every reader of modern fiction, and Percy Marmont, by his powerful screen portrayal of the beloved Mark, has endeared himself to the heart of photoplay fans and won a niche in the screen hall of fame. Others in the cast too—Ann Forrest as Nona and Margaret Fielding as the unsympathetic wife, Mabel—have scored heavily. Mention also must be made of the very fine character study of Twynning by Sydney Herbert and Rev. Sebastian Fortune by William Riley Hatch.

If you have not seen "If Winter Comes," by all means go tonight.

Egg Laying Contest
STILLWATER.—Four hundred hens layed 2,606 eggs in the first thirty days of the first year-around egg laying contest ever staged at Oklahoma A. and M. college. The marathon opened November 1. It is being conducted by the poultry department, directed by Prof. R. B. Thompson.

Two pens of hens owned at Kingfisher led 28 other pens owned in the state and ten pens from eight other states in production the first months. Thompson said. The winning pen, Rhode Island Whites, layed 169 eggs and the second, White Leghorns, layed 165 eggs.

The third pen, white leghorns owned by the Fortune Poultry farm of Boerne, Tex., layed 133 eggs. Ten other pens each accounted for 100 or more eggs, only one of them laying that few. The lowest pen was credited with only an even dozen eggs, although several pens of immature chickens were not counted. States represented in the contest, besides Oklahoma are Ohio, Michigan, New Jersey, Texas, Washington, Missouri, Colorado and Arkansas.

MONKEY BUSINESS ESTRANGES GIRL AND HER MOTHER

Miss Carol Goodner.

Miss Carol Goodner of New York had no desire to die as King Alexander of Greece did—from a monkey bite. So, when her mother insisted on adding "Leo," a monkey, to the cat, dog and two parrots enjoying the freedom of the Goodner home, Miss Carol left—but too late. She did get "nipped."

Production value per hen of the leading pen for the month was accounted 53 cents. The average production of all hens entered in the contest, nearly half of them no laying, was 6.51 eggs in thirty days.

Bug Cleanup Under Way
Stillwater, Okla.—The annual clean-up campaign conducted against the various kinds of bugs infesting the state by Oklahoma A. and M. College, which has been under way since the end of the crop growing season, is producing results as shown in reports to Professor C. E. Sanborn, experiment station and extension entomologist at the institution.

The cotton boll weevil and the chinch bug have been the two chief enemies of farmers aimed at in the drive, Sanborn says. Entomologist E. E. Scholl, of the extension department, has been carrying on some cooperative work in destruction of boll weevil hibernating places in the southeastern part of the state, Sanborn has announced.

"It is essential that all the hibernating places that can be reached be destroyed as soon as possible," Sanborn says. "We want to make it impossible for the weevil to pass through the winter, as far as we can."

Farmers in the small-grain district of the state have been advised that the burning of bunch grass is the first step in moving against the chinch bug.

"Unfortunately the farmers do not notice the chinch bug to any great extent except in the summer time, when it is doing serious damage to small grains and corn," says Sanborn. "It is then that they feel more like fighting the pest than they do in the fall of the year. Nevertheless, the most economical and expedient battle against the chinch bug can be arranged in the open weather of the late fall."

Woman Sells 36,936 Eggs
Fairview, Okla.—Mrs. Fannie Hall, of Ames, near here, has sold 36,936 eggs from 200 Brown Leghorn hens, for a return of $609.30. Mrs. Flora E. Bever, Major county home demonstration agent, has reported to Oklahoma A. and M. college.

"THE COVERED WAGON" IS COMING

"The Great American Picture at last," is truly descriptive of the remarkable screen version of Emerson Hough's story, "The Covered Wagon," which will be seen as the attraction at the McSwain on Monday, December 24th.

It is different from most American epics heretofore shown on screen or stage, for the reason it deals with an intimate and widely appealing phase of our peculiar national development. It shows a nation not smug and contented with unusual benefits and blessings, but answering that greatest urge for expansion and the carrying forward of the best tradition and ideals. Nothing ever placed between the pages of book or behind footlights has so vividly shown that spirit which alone made the United States the greatest of nations. The trials, struggles, hardships and bravery of men, women, girls and boys in that great forward march of civilization, epitomized in the closing forties, when progress moves westward is at last brought before our eyes and quite correctly in this, the superlative of film creations. Those who see this motion picture wonder will feel justly proud if they happen to have been born in this land and others who have come here from distant shores will have a vast satisfactory thrill over their wisdom in adoption. The finest players in pictures were recruited to make lasting fame in the great characterizations of this story. Among them are J. Warren Kerrigan, Lois Wilson, Ethel Wales, Ernest Torrance, Tully Marshall, and others.

A selected orchestra of 20 will play Hugo Reisenfeld's special score.

New Conference of State Prepares to Start Caging Year

YUKON, Okla., Dec. 15.—With a successful football season behind it the baby of the Oklahoma high school athletic conferences—the North Central—will begin its basketball season January 4. Yukon won the football race—the conference's first—with five victories and no defeats. Edmond and Hennessey each won three and lost one. Covington played but two games, winning both. Other members of the league are: Crescent, Britton, Kingfisher and Garber.

The coaches selected the following all-conference team: Ends, O. Fisher, Hennessey, and Cloud, Britton; tackles McGee, Hennessey, and Costo, Covington; guards, White, Covington, and J. Heidbough, Crescent; center, Allen, Yukon; quarterback, Sanger, Yukon; halfbacks, Wheatley, Yukon and Jones, Edmond; fullback, Steen, Edmond.
